MICHELLE'S JOURNEY

When Michelle Bacso decided to make a fresh start and rebuild her business, she knew that she needed a system with extensive support and personalized coaching. So, after completing Brand Your Passions, Michelle joined The Powerhouse Coach.

MICHELLE'S RESULTS

With the mindset, marketing, and business training delivered in both of these programs, Michelle has been able to create an empowering and effective program that she is so excited about – a program that she says “would never have existed if it wasn’t for Team Soldo and starting off with your Brand Your Passions.” Michelle also shared that both of these programs are “smart program[s] to take if you are serious about building your own coaching business.”

Michelle and her husband recently welcomed their first baby, and she can’t wait to continue to grow her business even more during this new phase of her life. Michelle is so grateful for Team Soldo and says that without them, she would not be where she is today.
